

Sticky Knowledge

What is beautiful to one person might not be beautiful to someone else.

Using Watercolours

- Dip your paintbrush into the water first, then choose your colour
- Create a 'wash' by using wide brushstrokes across your page

Vincent van Gogh

Famous paintings include:

- Starry Night
- Sunflowers
- Self portrait

Working with Clay: Techniques to Try

Using Clay

- Clay can only be shaped when it is flexible and wet
 - Clay can be air dried or fired in a kiln

Crucial Connections

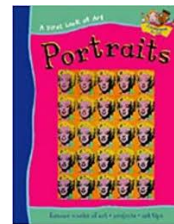

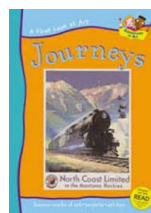

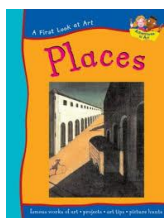

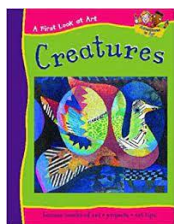

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/art-and-design-painting-techniques/z7h76v4>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zb9d7ty>

<https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/tp-ad-033-planit-art-ks1-portraits-lesson-4-watercolour-backgrounds-lesson-pack>

https://www.accessart.org.uk/introduction_to_watercolour/

Reading Recommendations

Values

Commitment and Empathy

Aspirations

designer, museum curator, artist, painter, sculptor, architect

Vital Vocabulary

landscape	the visible features of an area of land cityscape	the visible appearance of a city or urban area sculpture	the art of forming a solid object to represent a person or thing monument	a statue or building to remember an important person or event watercolour	a paint that is mixed with water technique	a skilful way of doing something design	a plan or drawing to show how something works or will look artist	a person who creates drawings or paintings pattern	a repeated decorative design texture	the feel or appearance of something natural	something existing in nature and not made by humans man-made	made or caused by human beings exhibition	a display of art or objects museum	a building where interesting objects or works of art are displayed gallery	a room for displaying works of art